LET 3

BIOGRAPHY

From the very beginning, back in 1986., LET 3 has been positioned as the unique phenomenna on the, first Yugoslavian, and later Croatian and Slovenian rock scene. Supreme, first class rock attraction with back up in outstanding lyrics, highest performance level, incredible live energy, theatrical perfection of concerts, non musical activities (acting, performances) and, overall unique sound supported by specific humour and feeling for bizzare. It's fair to say that there's no other band in the huge ex-Yugoslavian teritorry who could match up with LET 3's top quality, ideas and energy. Their undying wish to excite and shock people (if possible in the same time), combined with provocative elements (large penises, performing in uniforms of notorious ex-Yugoslavian army, nakedness, striptease onstage, grandmothers with moustaches, big statue of grandmothers with huge falus...) made them surely on of the most interesting music and cultural appearances in whole eastern Europe.

EARLY DAYS

The band made the first recorded appearance on compilation «Rijeka – Pariz – Texas» in late 80's. The mythical debut «Two Dogs Fucking» was released in 1989, and has been proclaimed album of the year all across former Yugoslavia. Preety same thing happened to the follow ups – «El Desperado» (1991.), «Peace» (1994.) and «Živi kurac» (1996.), double live album as one of the finest documents of Croatian rock music and most valuable proof of Let 3's live magic. All of the released materials left significant trace on domestic rock scene with huge hits such as «Izgnubljeni», «Vjerman pas», «Kontinentio», «Sam u vodi», «Nafta», etc.

FEDRA & NECUVENO

In spring of 1996. the band started to work on the theatre play «Fedra» that later became one of the most popular plays in Croatian theatres. With «Fedra» band visited many countries and several continents and won Croatian music award «Porin» for the best theatre music. More than a year later, in September of 1997., LET 3 released their most drastic «concept» album «Nečuveno» («Unheard») which contained absolutely nothing (not even recorded silence). That album, as music buisness diversion, perfectly mirrors one of the levels of LET 3's artistic activities. «Unhead» was, in a way, introduction to what was about to happened.

In 1998. band started to work on album «Jedina» («The Only One»), their best album to date and undoubtedely most exciting project in modern Croatian Music.

JEDINA

Concept and idea of «Jedina» was simple and complicated at the same time: to produce superb music (with the highest level of recording, arranging, cover design etc), but to release it in unique way.

ALBUM «JEDINA» WAS MADE IN ONLY ONE COPY!

Few of the key elements of the whole project were highest possible conspiracy (only few involved people knew the whole idea), exact planning of the first year (with exact time tables, next moves...), several shocking images and public appearances. The result was amazing! Let 3 won three prestigious awards – «Crni mačak» («Black cat», Croatian rock award) for the best band and the best song and highly acclaimed «Porin» (Croatian Grammy) for the best alter rock album of the year where they shocked the nation while appearing and performing in the uniforms of the notorious ex-Yugoslavian Army! The album iteslef was proclaimed album of the year by most revicwers and it produced several big hits – «Profesor Jakov», «Tazi-tazi», «Ženu varam» etc.. The band has been on the road almost non stop for 8 months playing big solo concerts in all major cities in Croatia and Slovenia, breaking all the records in numbers of audience and managing to get huge media coverage wherever they play.
